MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish family of Our Lady of Hope, commit ourselves to continue the mission of Jesus Christ, to proclaim His Gospel, and to love one another as He loves us. We are a welcoming community of faith, guided by the Holy Spirit and centered on God's Word and the Eucharist. Through the Sacraments, prayer, and the stewardship of our God-given gifts, we provide opportunities to grow closer to God and to serve members of the community.

Our Lady of Hope This Week

DISCIPLESHIP REQUIRES COURAGE

God’s call to faithful discipleship promises unimaginable blessings and requires radical trust in God’s providence. Like the rich young man, we have futures to get ready. We cannot do it alone—for it is only with God that all things are possible.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, King Solomon entreats and encounters Wisdom and is granted blessings that pale only in comparison to Wisdom herself. In the second reading, the author writes, the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword. In the Gospel, Jesus has an exchange with a young man of many possessions, who asks what he must do to inherit eternal life.

2021 FAITH Catholic-Lansing Michigan

Focus on Religious Freedom

"It seems there is a real danger to Religious Freedom now in our country - mostly because people aren't serious about religion or religious freedom." - Archbishop Charles Chaput Happening Now: Tennessee H.S. Football Players Lead Community in Prayer.

Players from two TN football teams led parents and fans in postgame prayer after school administrators banned public religious displays following a complaint from Americans United for Separation of Church and State.

"...the threat of a legal action to forbid prayer after the game was overwhelmed by player led prayer supported by parents and fans in solidarity," said a district alumnus ⁽¹⁾

"Religious Freedom is one of the most important Civil Rights issues of our times."
Eric Metaxas, Author

The Importance of Faith to America's Founders: George Washington

The Bible and religious faith exerted a profound influence on the founding generation, including those who were not particularly orthodox, traditional believers. In 1783, assuming he was now exiting his public career, George Washington wrote to the governors of each state with advice he considered the most important. It is full of encouragement to Americans to recognize that they had been given a truly unique opportunity by God, and they best not waste it.⁽²⁾

FALL CLOTHING DRIVE

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be holding its Fall Clothing Drive on Saturday, October 23 in the Our Lady of Hope Church parking lot from 10am to 1pm. Bring your unwanted clothing and shoes in plastic bags or on hangers. Clothes in any condition are accepted, because if the clothes are not wearable they will be recycled for rags.

St. Joseph

Faithful Protector of Mother and Child

The infant Christ “came into our world in a state of great vulnerability. He needed to be defended, protected, cared for and raised by Joseph” (PC 5). The humble and often hidden carpenter of Nazareth accompanied Mary in her pregnancy, assisted at the birth of the Messiah in a stable, presented Jesus in the Temple, fled with his family far from their homeland to protect them, and lovingly raised Jesus as his own son in the years to come.

While the angel of the Lord appeared to Mary to announce that she would bring forth the Savior of the world, it was revealed to Joseph in a series of dreams how God’s plans would be brought to fulfillment. As Pope Francis highlights, “God trusted Joseph, as did Mary, who found in him someone who would not only save her life, but would always provide for her and her child” (PC 5).

Dear St. Joseph,
help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, “in every situation, Joseph declared his own ‘fiat’” (PC 3). His “yes” to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph’s devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.

During this Year of St. Joseph, each of us can find in him “an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble” (PC, Intro). Joseph shows us how to say “yes” to life, despite our own fears, frailties, and weaknesses. For it is Joseph who was “chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true ‘miracle’ by which God saves the child and his mother” (PC 5).

May we, too, be miracles in the lives of those who are most in need, especially at the beginning and end of life. Dear St. Joseph, you who were “able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence” (PC 5), help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.
