MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish family of Our Lady of Hope, commit ourselves to continue the mission of Jesus Christ, to proclaim His Gospel, and to love one another as He loves us. We are a welcoming community of faith, guided by the Holy Spirit and centered on God's Word and the Eucharist. Through the Sacraments, prayer, and the stewardship of our God-given gifts, we provide opportunities to grow closer to God and to serve members of the community.

Our Lady of Hope This Week

GOD INTENDS TO MAKE EACH ONE OF US A NEW CREATION IN JESUS CHRIST

Isaiah encourages the people, giving them hope for the future and reminding them of God’s love for them. We can take encouragement from these same words, especially since Christ has come for us. The Lord longs to breathe His divine life into each of us, making us new and whole.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

In the first reading, Isaiah prophesies Zion’s reversal of fortune. Saint Paul writes to the Corinthians that all have been endowed with different gifts and charisms, each generated by the same God—Father, Son and Spirit. In the Gospel, Jesus and His mother attend a wedding at Cana in Galilee. When they run out of wine, Mary instructs the servers, do whatever He tells you. Jesus turns water into wine.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE 2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As Mary interceded for the newlyweds, let us ask her to intercede for us as well. This week pray extra Hail Marys and ask her for the wisdom and courage to “do whatever He tells you.”

Word of God Sunday 2022

Pope Francis has asked that the Church observe the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time as the Sunday of the Word of God. Pope Francis said: "Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world."

"Each individual Christian and every community is called to be an instrument of God for the liberation and promotion of the poor."
 -Pope Francis

Charles spent 17 years deployed at military bases throughout the world. Returning home after an incident involving nerve gas, he began struggling with debilitating bouts of anxiety and depression.

His circumstances worsened and he couldn't maintain a steady job. Charles moved in with his mother, but within a year she died and his childhood home went into foreclosure.

Catholic Charities' Project Veterans' Independence, which guides homeless veterans into permanent housing so they can live independently and have access to support networks that get them back on their feet, reached out and helped Charles.

"I was out of the service, out of a family, out of a job and out of a home. Catholic Charities found me and helped me to not only find a place to live - but they helped me to turn my life around."

- Charles, honorably discharged US Veteran

Focus on Religious Freedom

Let's Celebrate! Religious Freedom Day is Here!

The President has declared January 16 as Religious Freedom Day every year since 1993 in commemoration of the 1786 Virginia Statute on Religious Freedom. This legislation, drafted by Thomas Jefferson, was the model for the First Amendment of the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

An easy- to- understand paraphrase of Jefferson's lexicon, written for young school children to understand, would be:

"God created us to be free in our thinking. He is all-powerful but He chose not to force us to obey Him.... Truth is a wonderful thing. Truth can defend itself if you just let it be told. People need to be free to talk about what they believe is the truth about God." ⁽¹⁾

Too many school age children and their parents are unaware of the "Big Secret: America's Public Schools ARE NOT "God-Free Zones." This truth is taught in the 9 minute "Students of Faith" video from Catholics for Freedom of Religion on our home page at www.cffor.org. The student actors and the narrator explain the origins of religious freedom in America, the importance of Religious Freedom Day and the rights of students to live their faith in many ways throughout their school day.

All presidents, since 1993, have issued a Proclamation on Religious Freedom Day:

"Be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives ...that January 16, 1993, is designated as Religious Freedom Day (and the President calls on) all people of the U.S. to celebrate their religious freedom..."
President George H.W. Bush, 1993 Proclamation

"Religious freedom helps to give America's people a character independent of their government, fostering the formation of individual codes of ethics, without which a democracy cannot survive."
President Bill Clinton, 1994 Proclamation

"Religious freedom is a cornerstone of our Republic, a core principle of our Constitution, and a fundamental human right."
President George W. Bush, 2002 Proclamation

"Faith can bring us closer to one another, and our freedom to practice our faith and follow our conscience is central to our ability to live in harmony."
President Barack Obama, 2010 Proclamation

"From its opening pages, the story of America has been rooted in the truth that all men and women are endowed with the right to follow their conscience, worship freely, and live in accordance with their convictions."
President Donald Trump, 2020 Proclamation

O God our Creator,
We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.
