MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish family of Our Lady of Hope, commit ourselves to continue the mission of Jesus Christ, to proclaim His Gospel, and to love one another as He loves us. We are a welcoming community of faith, guided by the Holy Spirit and centered on God's Word and the Eucharist. Through the Sacraments, prayer, and the stewardship of our God-given gifts, we provide opportunities to grow closer to God and to serve members of the community.

Our Lady of Hope This Week

OUR ENCOUNTER WITH CHRIST TRANSFORMS US FOR THE SAKE OF THE WORLD

The Gospel tells of Jesus sending out the first disciples with a mission of healing and peace—a task that now belongs to the baptized. As we gather today in worship, may our encounter with Christ change our hearts and strengthen us to be instruments of peace and mercy in our world.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Isaiah prophesies the wealth and prosperity that Jerusalem will once again have. In the second reading, Paul states that he has nothing to boast about except the cross of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus sends out the disciples in His name with a mission of healing and Good News.

BAPTISM AND THE PREPARATION CLASS

Baptisms are celebrated every third Sunday of every month at 1pm. Please call the office to register in advance. Baptism Preparation, which was done with an in-person class, is now being offered with a Baptismal Preparation Video which is available on the Our Lady of Hope website. It is our hope that parents will view the video prior to their child’s baptism. Please visit www.olhope.org.

VIRTUS TRAINING-PROTECT OUR CHILDREN!

Virtus is a program that gives us a specific plan in identifying and preventing child sexual abuse. The training is required of all diocesan personnel and volunteers in all parishes.

If you are a volunteer or are thinking of volunteering, please visit Virtusonline.org to fulfill your Virtus requirements.

The Office for the Protection of Children and Young People maintains a confidential phone line: 516 594-9063. We are available to help you or anyone who has been abused or victimized by someone representing the Catholic Church. All calls are responded to within 24 hours.

MEMORIAL BRICKS

All of the last memorial bricks have been placed by Our Lady’s Grotto. Thank you for your support and also for your unending patience! You are appreciated!

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Eucharistic Ministers are needed to bring the Eucharist to our homebound parishioners. If you are able to volunteer it would be greatly appreciated. The act of bringing the Eucharist to the elderly and infirm means so much to those on the receiving end. Thank you for your service to our church! Please call the church office for more information. Thank you!

SUMMER OFFICE HOURS

The church office will be closed on Monday, July 4 in observance of Independence Day. The church office will close at 1pm on Fridays during the summer until September 2.

A plea from the Religious Education office:

The Religious Education office hopes you will hear the calling and join us as a catechist to help our children foster growth of Catholic moral principles and to inspire them to build a deeper relationship with God.

The Goal of Our Lady of Hope Religious Education program is to provide children in our parish with the opportunity for spiritual growth through instructions, nurturing and family involvement. In doing so the children and their families will deepen their relationship with God, enhance their sense of belonging to the church community and will share their gifts and talents with others whom they meet along their spiritual journey.

It is with this goal in mind that we are asking our parish families, friends and relatives to pray and look within their hearts to teach their faith and traditions of the Catholic Church. By becoming a catechist you are helping our children to focus on Jesus, the source of self-giving and sacrificial love, and help them to grow into the kind, generous, compassionate and prayerful people God has called them to be.

Let us pray...

Welcome Fr. Kevin!

In April 2022 Bishop Barres appointed Father Kevin Dillon as the new pastor of Our Lady of Hope, Carle Place.

Born to Gerard and Dolores Dillon in March of 1961, Father Kevin is the oldest of four children. Fr. Kevin has 2 sisters and one brother all residing here on Long Island. In 1965, his family moved from Brooklyn to Williston Park. He attended St. Aidan School and graduated in 1975. From there, Fr. Kevin went on to the former St. Pius X Preparatory Seminary High School where he graduated in 1979.

During the 1980's, Father Kevin attended Nassau Community College and Queens College where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in English and a Master's Degree in English Education. Fr. Kevin holds a New York Permanent Certification as a teacher of English to Secondary School students. While attending college, he worked as a Training and Development Instructor for the Dime Savings Bank of New York.

Upon graduating college, Father Kevin taught seventh and eighth grade English in several Catholic elementary schools, including Our Lady of Fatima-Scarsdale, St. Mary's-Roslyn, and St. Anastasia-Douglaston.

Father Kevin always felt called to the priesthood, and after his dad's death in 1990, he thought seriously about entering the seminary, and in September 1991 he entered Cathedral Residence of the Immaculate Conception in Douglaston to begin his studies for the priesthood. From there he attended the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington until 1994. At that time, still not completely certain if God was calling him to the priesthood, he withdrew to reflect and discern God's plan for him. He returned to teaching and worked at several Catholic and public high schools, including St. Dominic High School-Oyster Bay, Suncoast Community High School-Riviera Beach Florida and Bishop Guertin High School in Nashua New Hampshire.

In 2000, Father Kevin still felt called to the priesthood, and so resumed his studies for priestly formation at the Diocesan Seminary in Huntington. He was ordained June 14, 2003 and has served as Associate Pastor in several parishes of the Diocese, including St. Brigid Westbury in 2003 to 2005, St. Jude Mastic Beach in 2005 to 2007 and St. Aidan Williston Park from 2007 to 2015. From there Father Kevin went to St. Boniface Martyr in Sea Cliff as pastor and has served the faithful there since then. He now comes to Our Lady of Hope and looks forward to serving our parish and getting to know the parishioners here.

Father Kevin is a fan of the New York Yankees as well as the New York Rangers. He has a passion for fitness and exercise and enjoys working out with his trainers. He enjoys spending time with his family and friends. He like to travel and has run several pilgrimages to Europe and the Holy Land. He also enjoys reading and visiting book stores. Finally, Father Kevin likes to sing and attended a Voice Lesson Class in Vienna Austria where he studied with the Director of the Vienna Boys Choir and composed his own song.

Let us welcome Father Kevin with open arms as we look to the future here at Our Lady of Hope!

One Minute Meditations

Let God love you

Have you ever seen a parent scoop up a child, breathe in his scent, and hug him closely as if he couldn't get enough of that beloved child? That's how God feels about you. He loves you dearly and shows you each day. Open your heart to Him.

Not just a symbol

According to Scripture, Jesus took bread and wine and said, "Take and eat; this is my body" and "this is my blood" (Matthew 26:26-28), and changed them into his Body and Blood. He also said, "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19). In the Eucharist we experience during Mass, "the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1374).

"The Church is the home that accepts everyone and refuses no one ... the greater the sin, the greater the love that the Church should show towards those who convert." Pope Francis

Find God in everyday things

St. Josemaría Escrivá, founder of Opus Dei ("Work of God"), taught that extraordinary holiness can be found in ordinary circumstances: "Everything that is done for love becomes beautiful and grand" in God's eyes. Want the surest way to sainthood? St. Josemaría said to make every moment holy:

Sanctifying work: "Carry out the little duties of each moment," and put all your heart, mind, skill, and love into what you do. When we offer our tasks (the "raw material") to God's grace, He gives them infinite value. For example, activities – especially unpleasant ones – can be offered for our own or others' intentions. This is one way to dedicate daily activities to God.

Sanctifying moments: Find the "divine hidden in the most ordinary situations." God uses moments that are difficult, tedious, or just beyond our abilities to conform us to

Christ. Jesus spent most of His earthly life working and leading a holy but often ordinary life. With His grace, we grow in patience, perseverance, humility, compassion, and gratitude by meeting ordinary moments with extraordinary virtue.

Sanctifying attitude:

When we are patient with others, take praise and criticism well, and avoid jealousy, gossip, and dishonesty, we demonstrate that we belong to Christ. Our work becomes God's work. We become, slowly but surely, "a saint, seemingly like everyone else around him, but deeply identified with Jesus Christ."

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe the Pope can teach infallibly?

Jesus named St. Peter the (visible) head of his Church and gave him the keys of the kingdom to bind and loose sin.

At the Last Supper, He promised to send the Holy Spirit to: "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26).

Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the pope teaches infallibly when, as St. Peter's successor, he teaches on matters of faith and morals (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #891). In these areas, he cannot err.

Prayer tips from the saints

Prayer at its best is a personal conversation with God and fuels our friendship with Him. Try these simple pro-tips from the saints:

St. John of the Cross: According to St John, naming our human needs and presenting them before God in prayer are acts of love. He taught that we don't need to spell out what we need or want, but offer our need to God and ask Him to do what pleases Him, "... because the Lord knows what is suitable for us better than we do."

St. Bernard of Clairvaux: "Those who are sincere and wise will not fail to 'chew' the psalm with their mind."

Good prayer is fed by reading and meditating upon Scripture. A good Catholic commentary can help, too.

St. Teresa of Avila: "He wants to ... know the love you have for Him, whether it is present in dryness as well as in spiritual delights." Good prayer, like true love, perseveres even in difficulty or dryness. Our sincere efforts please God.

from Scripture

Luke 12:13-21, More to life than riches

In this Gospel passage, Jesus is asked to intervene in a family feud over an inheritance. Back in ancient times, rabbis were often asked to settle such disputes. Jesus originally refused but seeing the discord within the family over the disagreement, he told them a parable about a wealthy but foolish man to put their situation into perspective.

The man in the story wasn't condemned for doing well for himself. He was condemned for his selfishness and lack of foresight. He didn't share his excessive wealth with those in need or put his wealth to generous use. Although he was rich, he was spiritually impoverished. He would appear before God empty-handed.

The point of this parable isn't to scare us into getting rid of our wealth, but to remind us that there is more to life than accumulating goods. Our worth and esteem aren't based on what we have, but what we do with the gifts God has given us. How do we use them to care for His beloved children. Once we understand that, our hearts will become like His.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 3 – St. Thomas (1st century). Despite being known as "doubting Thomas," he made a beautiful profession of faith when he received proof of Jesus' Resurrection: "My Lord and My God" (John 20:28). Tradition says that Thomas evangelized the Parthians, Medes, and Persians and ultimately reached India.

July 9 – St. Veronica Giuliani (1727). Born in 17th century Italy, St. Veronica entered the Capuchin order and began receiving visions of Christ's Passion soon after. By a special grace, she received the marks of Christ's wounds on her body.

July 22 – St. Mary Magdalene (first century). Jesus expelled seven demons from Mary (Luke 8:2) and she financially supported His ministry. She stood by His Cross with His mother and was the one who informed the Apostles of Jesus' Resurrection.

July 26 – Sts. Joachim and Anne (first century). Little is known about Jesus' grandparents, but Mary's unshakeable faith, her devotion to the laws of her religion, and her steadiness in crises indicate the values with which she was raised.

Q & A Does wearing the brown scapular bring good luck?

The scapular itself (from the Latin, scapula, or "shoulder"), consists of two small pieces of cloth connected by strings, and worn over the chest and back, close to the skin. According to tradition, Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock, founder of the Carmelite Order, and presented the brown scapular to him, promising that those who wore it until death would not suffer the fires of Hell, be preserved in time of danger, and experience peace and protection.

The brown scapular is the most common type, and there is a rite to enroll the wearer. The priest places the scapular on the wearer. These aren't "good luck" charms. Like other sacramentals, they are meant to prepare us to obtain grace through the Church's prayers, who asks for God's blessing upon us for some benefit for our body or soul (CCC #1670). The scapular itself – or any sacramental – doesn't "do" anything; it's a reminder to the wearer of their commitment to holiness and of Mary's protection – something already "in action."

Prayer for Ukraine

Great and almighty God, we your children turn to you with humility in our hearts and bow our heads low before you. We beseech your loving kindness and abundant blessings upon the nation—the people—of Ukraine during these days of great danger to their safety and well-being.

Our brothers and sisters, Lord, are once again threatened by aggressors who see them only as simple obstacles blocking the path to the complete domination of the precious land and resources of the country of Ukraine. Strengthen the people as they face this great danger, turning to you in the immeasurably deep faith, trust and love they have placed in you all their lives. Send your heavenly legions, O Lord, commanded by the patron of Kyiv, Archangel Michael, to crush the desires of the aggressor.

Grant unity of mind, heart and soul, O Lord, to all leaders in public service with those they serve. Unite them all into one, great Christian family, so that together, as brothers and sisters, they may glorify your majestic name—God in the Holy Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages and ages. Amen.
