MISSION STATEMENT

We, the parish family of Our Lady of Hope, commit ourselves to continue the mission of Jesus Christ, to proclaim His Gospel, and to love one another as He loves us. We are a welcoming community of faith, guided by the Holy Spirit and centered on God's Word and the Eucharist. Through the Sacraments, prayer, and the stewardship of our God-given gifts, we provide opportunities to grow closer to God and to serve members of the community.

Our Lady of Hope This Week

THE LORD WANTS US TO LIVE UNBURDENED, FREE TO BE CLOSE TO HIS HEALING PRESENCE

Much of modern-day life involves the busyness of everyday tasks. The Lord asks that we simply come to Him and allow ourselves to be healed and made whole, to allow Him to pour His grace into our hearts and lives. This requires us to pause and to go to Him in silence and stillness.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Abraham and Sarah provide hospitality to three men who appear near-by his tent. One of the men tells Abraham that when he comes again in a year, Sarah will have a son. Paul writes to the Colossians that he rejoices in his sufferings and joins them with the sufferings of Christ on behalf of the Church. In the Gospel, Jesus enters a village where two sisters attend to him. Martha is burdened, anxious and worried as she tries to complete tasks; Mary sits at the Lord’s feet and listens to Him. Jesus says Mary has chosen the better part.

We welcome Fr. Kevin!

In April 2022 Bishop Barres appointed Father Kevin Dillon as the new pastor of Our Lady of Hope, Carle Place.

Born to Gerard and Dolores Dillon in March of 1961, Father Kevin is the oldest of four children. Fr. Kevin has 2 sisters and one brother all residing here on Long Island. In 1965, his family moved from Brooklyn to Williston Park. He attended St. Aidan School and graduated in 1975. From there, Fr. Kevin went on to the former St. Pius X Preparatory Seminary High School where he graduated in 1979.

During the 1980's, Father Kevin attended Nassau Community College and Queens College where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in English and a Master's Degree in English Education. Fr. Kevin holds a New York Permanent Certification as a teacher of English to Secondary School students. While attending college, he worked as a Training and Development Instructor for the Dime Savings Bank of New York.

Upon graduating college, Father Kevin taught seventh and eighth grade English in several Catholic elementary schools, including Our Lady of Fatima-Scarsdale, St. Mary's-Roslyn, and St. Anastasia-Douglaston.

Father Kevin always felt called to the priesthood, and after his dad's death in 1990, he thought seriously about entering the seminary, and in September 1991 he entered Cathedral Residence of the Immaculate Conception in Douglaston to begin his studies for the priesthood. From there he attended the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington until 1994. At that time, still not completely certain if God was calling him to the priesthood, he withdrew to reflect and discern God's plan for him. He returned to teaching and worked at several Catholic and public high schools, including St. Dominic High School-Oyster Bay, Suncoast Community High School-Riviera Beach Florida and Bishop Guertin High School in Nashua New Hampshire.

In 2000, Father Kevin still felt called to the priesthood, and so resumed his studies for priestly formation at the Diocesan Seminary in Huntington. He was ordained June 14, 2003 and has served as Associate Pastor in several parishes of the Diocese, including St. Brigid Westbury in 2003 to 2005, St. Jude Mastic Beach in 2005 to 2007 and St. Aidan Williston Park from 2007 to 2015. From there Father Kevin went to St. Boniface Martyr in Sea Cliff as pastor and has served the faithful there since then. He now comes to Our Lady of Hope and looks forward to serving our parish and getting to know the parishioners here.

Father Kevin is a fan of the New York Yankees as well as the New York Rangers. He has a passion for fitness and exercise and enjoys working out with his trainers. He enjoys spending time with his family and friends. He like to travel and has run several pilgrimages to Europe and the Holy Land. He also enjoys reading and visiting book stores. Finally, Father Kevin likes to sing and attended a Voice Lesson Class in Vienna Austria where he studied with the Director of the Vienna Boys Choir and composed his own song.

Let us welcome Father Kevin with open arms as we look to the future here at Our Lady of Hope!

SUMMER CAMP

Everyone's been having a blast at Summer Camp 2022!

A plea from the Religious Education office:

The Religious Education office hopes you will hear the calling and join us as a catechist to help our children foster growth of Catholic moral principles and to inspire them to build a deeper relationship with God.

The Goal of Our Lady of Hope Religious Education program is to provide children in our parish with the opportunity for spiritual growth through instructions, nurturing and family involvement. In doing so the children and their families will deepen their relationship with God, enhance their sense of belonging to the church community and will share their gifts and talents with others whom they meet along their spiritual journey.

It is with this goal in mind that we are asking our parish families, friends and relatives to pray and look within their hearts to teach their faith and traditions of the Catholic Church. By becoming a catechist you are helping our children to focus on Jesus, the source of self-giving and sacrificial love, and help them to grow into the kind, generous, compassionate and prayerful people God has called them to be.

Focus on Religious Freedom

*"Almighty God hath created the mind free ..."
Inscription on Jefferson Memorial, Washington, D.C.*

The Faith of Our Founders – Freedom Requires Sacrifice

Most of the nation's 56 Founders were openly religious, believing with Samuel Adams that "true Religion and good Morals are the only solid foundations of public liberty and happiness." After signing the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, Samuel Adams wrote, "We have this day restored the Sovereign to whom men ought to be obedient. He reigns in Heaven, and with a propitious eye beholds his subjects assuming that freedom of thought and dignity of self-direction which He bestowed on them. From the rising to the setting of the sun, may His kingdom come!"

"And for the support of this Declaration, with firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor." - The final line of the Declaration of Independence

With this pledge, the 56 Founders were willing to sacrifice everything for God and for liberty. Many of them and their families suffered hardship that few today remember:

- Five were captured by the British and tortured before they died.
- Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned.
- Nine fought and died from wounds or hardships of war.
- A Virginia planter and trader saw his ships sunk by the British navy and he died in poverty.
- Others also lost all their worldly possessions and died bankrupt.

(The Faith of Our Fathers, by Alf Mapp; courant.com, 7/4/18; lehmaninstitute.org; see the American Minute)

"(Freedom) is a challenge held out to each generation and it must constantly be won over for the sake of the good." - Pope Francis

Prayer for Ukraine

Great and almighty God, we your children turn to you with humility in our hearts and bow our heads low before you. We beseech your loving kindness and abundant blessings upon the nation—the people—of Ukraine during these days of great danger to their safety and well-being.

Our brothers and sisters, Lord, are once again threatened by aggressors who see them only as simple obstacles blocking the path to the complete domination of the precious land and resources of the country of Ukraine. Strengthen the people as they face this great danger, turning to you in the immeasurably deep faith, trust and love they have placed in you all their lives. Send your heavenly legions, O Lord, commanded by the patron of Kyiv, Archangel Michael, to crush the desires of the aggressor.

Grant unity of mind, heart and soul, O Lord, to all leaders in public service with those they serve. Unite them all into one, great Christian family, so that together, as brothers and sisters, they may glorify your majestic name—God in the Holy Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages and ages. Amen.
