

For Parents Only
A Love Letter to My Child
Due November 6, 2023
(or anytime prior)

Since a parent is always a part of his/her child's life, we would like to include you in your child's retreat experience. Sometimes, especially during these "developing teen years", parents do not find enough opportunities to express exactly how much they love their child. We would like to give you this opportunity now. On the next page, or on something of your own, please write a personal letter to your child, (something only your child will ever see), seal it in an envelope addressed to your child and bring it to the Religious Education Office. We will bring it to the Retreat and deliver it to your child.

A template for the letter could be:

To acknowledge my love for you.....

We don't always agree.....that's alright.....my feelings for you do not change

We're not perfect.....you and I....but we can be there for each other when we mess up

I support you.....sometimes it might not seem that way....but I do

I remember holding you as a baby.....what it was like.....I love to hold you now.....it's OK to be embarrassed with each other

My love is unconditional.....

I care, I always have, I always will.....
